Some Directions for all Persons in this Kingdom.

To the Reader.

THere hauing beene much doubt made (occasioning much difficulty, delay, and differences in payments of Money) whether the vn-euen Peeces of Gold, viz. XXII. Shillings Peeces, &c. Where Current with such Allowances of Graines, as heretofore, before the last Proclamation. To cleere such Scruples, and declare the seuerall worths of all vncurrant Coyne exceeding the Remedies. To the end. All may knowe, what such lightned Peeces will truely make: where-by they may bee much eased.

I haue calculated the Prises of the same, and what it will make by way of Exchange, for the ease and direction of all men, that haue occasion to deliuer or receiue the same.

Perfect

Perfect Directions for all English Gold, now Current in this Kingdome.

WHereas, By his late Maiesties Proclamation made for suppressing of light Gold, amongst other things and reasons thereof (therein more largely expressed) it is contained in these words, viz.

AND therefore, Wee doe hereby straightly charge and forbid, vpon paine of contempt, and incurring our High displeasure; That no person or persons, from and after Midsomer next comming, in any County of our Realme, doe presume to take, receiue, or deliuer in payment, any Peece of our Gold Coyne (and formerly by Vs aduanced at the rates aforesayd, being clipped, washed, or any other way vnlawfully diminished; or lacking of his iust weight thereof: otherwise, then according to the Rates hereafter seuerally expressed. And with the Allowance formerly set downe in our former Proclamation, That is to say,

1. In euery Peece current for Thirty-three Shillings, the Remedy shall shall not exceed foure Graines and a halfe.

2. Twenty-two Shillings Pieces, shall not exceed three graines.

3. The Sixteene-shillings Sixe-pence Pieces, shall not exceed, Two graines and a halfe.

4. The Eleuen-shillings Sixe-pence Pieces, shall not exceede, Two Graines.

5. The Five-shillings Sixe pence Piece, shal not exceed, One graine.

6. The Two-shillings Sixe-pence peece shall not exceede, Halfe a graine.

All which Remedies shall bee allowed in euery Piece accordingly, and no deduction or abatement to be made for the same, but to passe as

as if it were of full weight and iuſt value. But if any ſuch peece of Coyne lacking of his weight aboue the ſayd Remedies, ſhall from and after Midſommer next comming, be offered in payment by any perſon or perſons within this our Realme; Our will and pleaſure then is, That for ſo many Graines more or leſſe as the Peece ſhall be lighter then the Remedies, ſo as aforeſayd allowed. Euery perſon or perſons, that ſo offereth the ſame in payment, ſhall alſo, at the ſame time pay and allow, after the rate of Two pence the Graine to him that receiueth it, for euery graine wanting aboue the Remedies reſpectiuely: And euery perſon or perſons, vnto whom the ſame is offered to bee payd, with theſe allowances, ſhall accept the ſame in payment, as if the ſame were full and iuſt weight, any thing contained in our former Proclama amation to the contrary notwith-anding. Prouided alwayes, That any such peece of Gold so offered payment, after the time aforesaid, all want aboue the number of so any more Graines then are allow-

As if the peece of Twenty and two shillings shall want more then three raines aboue the Remedy allowed,
r the peece of Eleuen shillings,
ore then two Graines aboue the emedy. And so of all the rest re-pectiuely.) Then our will and pleaure is, that in all payments betwixt arty and party, the same shall not nely bee refused without all reemption, but that euery person or ersons, to whom such tender of paients be made, shal brand the same,
y striking a hole in euery of the aid peeces so offered in paiment, as kewise of any other peece as shalbe

Rendring those Peeces so stricken through, then presently after to the Owners, according as was ordered by a Proclamation made by our deere Sister and late Queene ELIZABETH, in the nine and twentieth yeare of her Raigne vpon like occasion. Giuen, &c.

By

By this Proclamation it is cleere; That euery Peece not wanting in weight aboue the Remedies declared in the said Proclamation, viz.

Euery Peece of-

Shil. Pence.		Graines.
XXXIII.s.	Not wanting aboue-	9. Grai.
XXII.s.		6. Grai.
XVI. s. vj. d.		5. Grai.
XI. s.		4. Grai.
V s. vj. d.		2. Grai.
II. s. ix. d.		1. Grai.

Is Currant, and then was and ought to bee accepted in payment with abatement of Two pence a Graine,

Graine, for euery graine exceedi
the Remedy allowed.

Now there is no alteration mad
concerning these Peeces, by th
last Proclamation, but they do
and remaine in the same stan and degree, (Money payable u pon the same allowance or deduth on of Graines,) as they were be fore the same. The words o which last Proclamation for s
much as concernes the Currancy
of Coyne being, as followeth

ITEM,

ITEM, to the ende to auoyde and put to our Coyne of Golde money currant within this our realme, being clipped, washed, or by any meanes vnlawfully diminished, or lacking of the iust weight thereof, otherwise then according to the rates hereafter seuerally expressed. And with the allowance of the Remedies set downe in diuerse former Proclamations of Queene ELIZABETH, and of our late Father of blessed memory. That is to say,

1. In euery peece Currant for Thirty Shillings, the Remedy and abatement, shall not exceed foure Graines and a halfe.

2. The Twenty Shillings peeces shall not exceede, three graines.

3. The Fifteene shillings peece shall not exceede, two grains and a halfe.

4. The Tenne shillings peece, shall not exceede two Graines.

5. The Five shillings peece, shall not exceed one Graine.

6. The Two shillings five pence peece, the Remedy and abatement shall not exceede, halfe a Graine.

All which Remedies shall be allowed in euery Peece accordingly, the same wanting no more being to passe as if it were of full weight & iust value. But if any such piece of Coyne shall lacke of the true weight thereof aboue the Remedies before expressed. The

We doe straightly Charge and Commaund, that no person or persons whatsoeuer, shall accept or offer them in paiment, vpon any allowance or defalcation for want of weight whatsoeuer, but that the same bee and stand decried downe and vncurrant. And that it shall bee lawfull for any person or persons whatsoeuer, to whom offer of paiment of any the said pieces lightned as afore said shall be made, to brand the same by striking a hole in euery of the said peices so offered in payment, rendring the Peeces so branded, then presently after to the owners thereof againe.

This last Proclamation, expressely, and by plaine termes, Extendeth vnto, and Comprehends onely such peeces, which at the time of the sayd Proclamation were currant: for, and at the rates expressed in the same, viz. At XXX. shillings, XX. shillings, XV. shillings, X. shillings, V. shillings, and II. shillings vj. pence.

And therefore, for as much as all vn-euen peeces of Iacobus, halfe Quarters, and Eights, were at the time of the sayde last Proclamation currant for other values, viz. For XXXIII. shillings, XXII. shillings, XVI. shillings, vj. pence, XI. shillings, V. shillings vj. pence, and II. shillings ix. pence. It is most cleere, That the same peeces are not at all comprehended, or altered by the same last Pro-

Proclamation; but doe and are now current and payable vppon the same allowances and deductions for want of weight, as they were before the publishing of the same: And the rather, for that there were then peeces current for the values mentioned in the last Proclamation, whereof the same did dispose, leauing the others to be in such degree and state as they were: As also for that, the principall intention might be to preferre vpright his Maiesties euen Coynes (whereof great quantities haue beene coyned) beeing yet in good state, without such regard beeing had to the other, for as much as no more of the sayd vn-euen coynes are purposed to be coyned.

AND therefore, the render of ſuch Peeces, vpon allowance and deduction for want of waight agreeable to the former Proclamation, is good, and not confronted by the latter. But ought to bee accepted of vppon all payments of Bonds, Bils of Exchange, and Contracts, and duties, whatſoeuer and whereſoeuer; The party refuſing ſuch payments, not onely endamaging himſelfe by the delay: but incurring the paine of the former Proclamation, by refuſall of ſuch moneys, as his Maieſtie makes currant by his Proclamation. And this agreeth with the generall opinion of Lawyers, And the moſt vſuall practiſe of all men.
